Virtual Office Hours with Yale Office of Cooperative Research

During this unprecedented COVID-19 crisis, Yale OCR remains dedicated to helping faculty, post-docs and graduate students in their pursuit of entrepreneurship. For those who are thinking of commercializing their research, our team is offering 12 hours per week to anyone interested in support. During Office Hour sessions, a Yale OCR team member(s) can answer questions related to early stage startups on topics such as customer discovery, fundraising, and the general startup ecosystem. Whether you have an idea only, or are further along in the process, we are here to help.

Our availability through May is as follows:

Jim Boyle, Executive Director, Faculty Entrepreneurship & Venture Development
Wednesdays 8am – 10am
Thursdays 9am – 11am
Fridays 9am – 11am

Tom Jasinski, Entrepreneur-in-Residence & Principal at IntraVentures, LLP
